

WESTERLY

The Salvation Army drive which opened here Sunday is turning out well. The women who have been asked to help are well received and many have been most generous. The town's quota of $1,500 will no doubt be raised. Thursday evening the general in Dixon square was enjoyed by a large crowd in spite of the cool weather. The band gave its services. Today (Saturday) the Western Boy Scout will assist in the day and an additional attraction will be the Salvation Army band of Pawtucket, which will be heard during the day on the main streets. Sunday the churches will help.

The several canals of the Sons and Daughters of Liberty have received an invitation from the council at East Greenwich to attend a May basket contest there May 2. It is expected that a large number will go from Little Rocky council of Westerly.

There has been presented to the public library a cherrywood table used by Gen. George G. Meade at his headquarters during the battle of Gettysburg, the turning point in the Civil war. This was donated by Mrs. Edmund J. Cleveland and was purchased by Mr. Cleveland's father July 25, 1877. In addition to this historical table, Mr. Cleveland has given the library a number of relics collected from the battlefields of the Civil war and a framed picture of General Meade's headquarters at Gettysburg.

The meeting held Thursday evening in the synagogue called out a large number of the Jewish people. Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Silverman and Walter Lederer of Providence spoke in behalf of the Jewish orphanage and told of the good that was being done there.

There are to be two more sessions before the tournament is finished, and the next game will be played in Stonington.

Rev. and Mrs. Edmund J. Cleveland, who will leave town May 1st for Fall River, Mass., were pleasantly remembered by the members of Rev. Mr. Cleveland's confirmation class of 1922. They presented the pastor a gold pencil and engagement book and Mrs. Cleveland with a handsome portfolio. Wednesday evening the church tendered them a surprise at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Kenyon of 22 Palmer street. A handsome Emeralds desk lamp was presented to the pastor.

Thursday morning at 10 o'clock Edward Francis Lynch of White Rock and Miss Julia Margaret Bonaventura of Westerly were united in marriage at the church of the Immaculate Conception in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The nuptial high mass was celebrated by Rev. Henry Bruno, S. M. The wedding march was played by Miss Rosemary Carter, the organist. The bride was attended by Miss Felice Marzoglio. Joseph Ferraro was best man. Following the ceremony, a breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents.

STONINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Griffin have purchased of Hockley & Ryan, a large lot of land on Elm street, north of the William W. Ledward property. They will erect a bungalow where they will make their home. Work will be started at once.

The property known as the Eugene Alwood lot on Elm street, is soon to be put into building lots. A new road which will go from Elm street to Cutler street, coming out on the state road is to be laid out. It is understood by the syndicate interested in the property.

Work of building the cellar at the Schmidt place east of the borough have been started and soon a handsome new residence will be put up. Oliver Peniston is also excavating for his cellar in this newly opened property. Mr. Siminian has plans out for bids on the new home he intends building upon the lot on the state road and the new roadway leading to the Wimpelner and Killars property.

Friday evening about 25 members of Ruth chapter, No. 44 and guests made the trip to the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Smith of Pawtucket in Edmund Hyde's motor truck and played whist. Refreshments were served during the social hour.

Three large truck loads of men were transported from New York, going through Stonington about 7:30 o'clock Friday morning. The trucks were painted a bright red. They were Italian believed to be strike-breakers.

Tuesday afternoon and evening the district county Sunday school convention will be held at the Second Congregational church.

Rev. Charles F. Eldredge of Niantic will preach at the Road church Sunday at 11 o'clock.

The weather of Thursday was far from being warm; ice formed in places here and a light frost was noticeable.

May 1st is the time set for the rearing of the pedate court for admitting the girls of the late Abraham Jenkins which was found recently among his papers as being the bulk of his property to southern relatives.

The manufacturing plant, bank, post office and other buildings will begin work on an hour earlier Monday and Monday, no clocks must be set ahead and Monday, no clocks must be set ahead.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock for Mrs. Esther Holt at her home at 16 Cleveland street, Clarkville. Burial was in River Bend cemetery.

A great deal of commotion resulted about 7:45 Friday morning when the Westerly contractors who have the sewer job here, imported about fifty strikebreakers from New York. They were sent by boat to New London and Rose Transfer Lines brought them here from New London by motor trucks. Three large truck loads attempted to come across the bridge which connects Pawtucket and Westerly. When on the bridge the men were met by about 500 men strikers and the machines were asked to halt. The first truck Mr. Rose was driving. The contractor who was aboard with the driver told the driver not to stop but to proceed to Westerly. The strikers made one attempt and rocks were flying in the air, also sticks and clubs and soon the trucks were pelted so that the strikebreakers began to run. As they did so they were pursued down West Broad street, the strikers following with their cut cases, some of them flying through the air—the men's clothing being strewn around and many pieces of clothing landed in the river. Their shirts and coats were torn in shreds in many instances. The driver of the first truck was hurled the rocks and broke the windshield into pieces. He received a bad cut over his eye. The men ran in all directions trying to get out of the way of the mob. Breakfast spaghetti and onions were strewn around.

The school car of the Shore Line electric Railway had just come on the bridge and as the car filled with the school children which was there at 7:45 the riot was at its height. This trolley usually carries 118 children to high school at Stonington, most of them were kept off until the car was ready to go and then only 33 remained on and made the trip to school. The trolley comes into Westerly on the quarter of the hour and stands on the bridge until it is time for it to leave. A line man of the trolley company, Joseph Bradbury of Moss street, was on the car when a huge rock came through the window, breaking the pane and striking an ugly gash behind his right ear. The trolley was ten minutes late in leaving, which was the only thing that saved more from being hurt. Conductor O'Leary and Motorman Button had charge. The students got under the car seats and lugs. They stated that when they were sent up here they supposed it was a contract job and not one to take the place of the strikers.

It is understood that the town will call off the sewer building for perhaps a year or more and will probably come to some terms to pay the interest on the money involved.

Occum and Versailles. Wednesday evening at 8:40 an alarm was given by the Versailles sanitary fibre mill plant for a forest fire which was raging west of the village and was working its way to within a short distance of the houses. A good number responded and after nearly two hours of work the fire was under control.

George H. Tetresult is making repairs to his property and is planning to move into the residence recently vacated by Joseph McDonald. The repairs include both interior and exterior renovation as well as cement walks, gutters, etc.
